Izseljenci.

Radi popolnosti plačilne bilance naj omenim še denar, ki smo ga dobivali od izseljencev. Ta postavka je razmeroma znatna; nimamo pa merila, s katerim bi ugotovili njeno velikost. Izseljenci iz Amerike so pošiljali denar večinoma potom bank. V celi Severni Ameriki je bilo le par bank, na katere so se naši izseljenci obračali. Ko so se vrnili domov, so prinesli ostanek svojih prihrankov s seboj. Zato ostane vsaka cenitev problematičnega značaja. Menim, da so poslali vsako leto približno 12 milj. K.

Posebno v industrijskih podjetjih in uradih je bilo pri nas mnogo tujih delavcev in uradnikov, ki so pošiljali svoje prihranke iz naše domovine. Cenim, da je šlo po tej poti 1 milj. K na leto. Bilanca izseljništva bi bila torej za 11 milj. K aktivna.

History of SNPJ

Slovenska Narodna Podporna Jednota – SNPJ

The Slovene National Benefit Society enjoys a history that stretches back more than a century. Founded on April 6, 1904, SNPJ was initially incorporated as Slovenska Narodna Podporna Jednota, which translates to Slovene National Benefit Society in English. In honor of the founders we have retained our Slovenian initials, and our society is now best known by its original Slovenian acronym, "SNPJ."

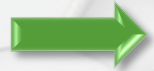

Initially organized to offer affordable life insurance and disability coverage to early Slovenian immigrants, the SNPJ founders established a unique, centralized financial fund that allowed the Society to develop and grow rapidly. Of the thousand or so life insurance companies and fraternal benefit societies operating in America, fewer than a hundred have been in business as long as we have.

Mapa | Satélite

The map displays the São Paulo metropolitan area and surrounding regions, including Guarulhos, Barueri, Osasco, Itapevi, Santo André, and Mauá. Numerous colorful pins are scattered across the map, representing the locations of Slovenian businesses and products. The pins use various icons such as a person, a building, a factory, and a shopping cart, and are color-coded in shades of purple, blue, green, and red. The map interface includes a search bar at the top left, a 'Mapa' and 'Satélite' toggle, and standard map navigation controls like zoom in (+) and zoom out (-) buttons on the right side. The Google logo is visible in the bottom left corner of the map area.
